ReGENco Gets a New Look and Feel

ReGENco has redesigned "The Difference" newsletter, while keeping our customers in mind throughout the entire process. Our newsletter is now interactive in conjunction with our website. Click our logo to visit the homepage. Due to our continuing efforts to be an environmentally responsible company, we will no longer be sending hard copy versions of our newsletter. Your personal copy will be sent via e-mail, unless you contact us at infoplease@regencoservices.com and request a hard copy version be sent to you.

President's Message: Customers Reward ReGENco with Growth

As we finish up our 8th year in business, let us take a look back and share the highlights of our progress as a company. We also discuss what we are currently working on for 2009 and how our customers have influenced our direction.
