

The Difference

Newsletters for Customers, Employees, Alliance Partners, and Vendors

President's Message: ReGENco responds to customer's needs

ReGENco can be a real asset in helping our customers to cope with the current economic environment in four main ways. Make the call today and let us assist you in seeking the greatest value possible from each dollar you spend.

[\[Click to Read More\]](#)

Safety Statistics and Culture

Everyday we strive to create & embrace a true safety culture aimed at protecting our most important resource: Our Employees. Our safety rating is at...

[\[Click to Read More\]](#)

Brownfield Grant

ReGENco was awarded a Brownfield Grant, which is given by the State of Wisconsin, to businesses for the cleanup of environmentally contaminated areas.

[\[Click to Read More\]](#)

Welcome New Employees

In an effort to support our customer's growing needs, we expanded our team of experienced staff by adding a new Engineer, CNC Supervisor and Controller.

[\[Click to Read More\]](#)

Introducing TurbinePROS

ReGENco announced the formation of a new wholly-owned subsidiary company. They will support our turnkey outages with open, clean & close services.

[\[Click to Read More\]](#)

President's Awards 2009

This award recognizes an extraordinary individual or group accomplishment that permanently improves our company and our ability to serve our customers.

[\[Click to Read More\]](#)

LP Casing Restoration

ReGENco has been actively involved in restoring LP casing erosion and minimizing future erosion to the LP casing. Find out more about how we can help you.

[\[Click to Read More\]](#)

EPRi Conference 2009

Toshiba, ReGENco, Westinghouse, and WesDyne sponsored a night out at Miller Park for a Milwaukee Brewers game and ReGENco hosted a plant tour.

[\[Click to Read More\]](#)

Plasma Transferred Arc Welder

The newly installed PTA welder is a fully automated and programmable process. This will expand our hard face welding capabilities for our customers.

[\[Click to Read More\]](#)

ReGENco Purchases a New Vertical Machining Center

In February, ReGENco purchased a new vertical machining center for the CNC department. This particular machine was bought for three main reasons that will positively affect our customers in many ways, including cost reduction.

[\[Click to Read More\]](#)